

Medical Claims:

- Itemized bill with insurance codes listed
- Bill showing amount owed
- Proof of payment matching the bill given (receipt that matches bill, bank statement showing cost paid)
- Any medical documentation to support the claim
- For prescriptions - receipt that gives the pharmacy name, drug name & number, doctor's name, patient's name, date, and price
- Explanation of Benefit (EOB) from your primary insurance for the same claim
You are required to file all medical claims with your primary insurance and submit the EOB to the insurance carrier in order for them to complete your claim processing

*This list is not exhaustive, the insurance carrier can always ask for more information or documentation based on your claim details. ****
